PartC: Read the following reading selections and then answer the questions that follow them.

An old white-bearded man of 70 stood before the judges. He had been accused by three men of lack of respect for the city gods. His sentence could be extremely severe. It might be exile or perhaps even death. The man's name was Socrates, and he was one of the greatest philosophers the Western world has ever known.

Although scholars are not sure, they think that Socrates was born in 469 B.C. His father was a sculptor and his mother was a midwife, a woman who helped other women when they were about to have babies. His childhood was spent during one of the most exciting periods in Athenian history. When Socrates grew up he proved himself to be an intelligent and thoughtful man. Socrates was disturbed by many ideas popular in the city at that time.

41. According to the text Socrates was .....

- a. from a rich family.
- b. interested in Athenian history.
- c. accused of lack of respect for gods.
- d. sentenced to death.

42. In line three, 'It' refers to .....

- a. exile
- b. sentence
- c. death
- d. city

43. Which one of the following sentence is FALSE?

- a. He was accused of lack of respect for the city gods.
- b. Judges sentenced Socrates severely.
- c. He was the greatest philosophers in the Western world.
- d. He spent his childhood during the Athenian history.

Because Maharishi is a monk, he feels he is "not expected" to think of his past. But he has one. Born the son of an Indian forest ranger, he graduated in 1942 at the age of 24 from Allahabad University, but instead of pursuing a career in his major (physics), he became a disciple of religious leader Sarawati (Guru Dev) and was with the guru until he died 13 years later. Maharishi was left, according to legend, with the job of developing a form of meditation for the common person. The result, which he announced after two years of seclusion in the Himalayas, was Transcendental Meditation (T.M.). Maharishi first taught T.M. in India, then brought it to the West, where there were "people who are in the habit of accepting things quickly."
