

A. Answer the following questions by choosing the best choices (a, b, c or d).

1. Many people wrongly think that psychology is to the study of mental illnesses.
a. reflected b. speculated c. confined d. advocated
2. According to theory the most important factor in learning is the learner himself and not the environment.
a. cognitive b. objective c. verbal d. analytical
3. Those who want to lose weight should resist the to overeat.
a. function b. temptation c. cognition d. evolution
4. Forgetting takes place when for some reason brain is not able to the learned material.
a. emulate b. attain c. consult d. retain
5. Darwin suggested that features of successive generations are changed through processes.
a. inferential b. observational c. panicky d. evolutionary
6. Anxiety and smoking are two of the causes of heart attacks.
a. underlying b. challenging c. perceptible d. permeable
7. Economics and politics are best studied together because the two subjects
a. validate b. deviate c. overlap d. assign
8. A doctor medicine after diagnosing a disease.
a. prejudice b. prescribe c. pinpoint d. fluctuate
9. One of the questions psychology tries to answer is whether behavior occurs because of
.....or environment.
a. nurture b. evolution c. heredity d. cognition

10. The primary purpose of counseling or psychology is to help people overcome their personal problems.

- a. intellectual b. inferential c. vocational d. clinical

11. A of disgust appeared on his face when he saw the scene of the terrible accident.

- a. sympathy b. grimace c. tendency — d. course

12. Many retarded people are by their low IQ scores.

- a. conducive b. interactive c. suppressible d. distinguishable

13. Man's development is studied from the moment of until death by developmental psychologists.

- a. conception b. expression c. contribution d. introspection

14. The movement of particles in an atom is with the way the planets move around the sun.

- a. intuitive b. manipulative c. analogous — d. prestigious

15. Reasoning from a general idea or set of facts to a particular idea or facts is called ...
..... reasoning.

- a. reversible b. variable c. integrative d. deductive

16. A poet his feelings, but a painter expresses his feelings in drawings and colors.

- a. contrasts b. deduces c. verbalizes d. conceptualizes

17. We should never the enemy. He might be more powerful and intelligent.

- a. assimilate b. underestimate c. contribute — d. underlie

18. The thief's strange behavior the suspicion of the police.

- a. aroused b. conditioned c. prejudiced d. expressed

19. It is that he could not pass the exam, because he had prepared himself well enough.

- a. permanent b. curious c. random d. overt

20. He from having contacts with others by staying at home all the time.

- a. acquired b. performed c. implied d. refrained

21. He was really when he found out that he didn't have enough money to pay for the sandwich.

- a. adaptable b. stable c. embarrassed d. extended

22. Learning is , that is, our knowledge increases as we study more and more.

- a. exclusive b. cumulative c. persistent d. competent

23. What we actually do, that is, our does not always indicate what we really know.

- a. performance b. inference c. permanence d. endurance

24. As theoretical are not directly observable, they cannot be measured easily.

- a. implications b. constructs c. reinforcers d. contexts

25. When an animal acts similarly in different circumstances, it is said that action has reached ...

- a. efficacy b. intensity c. infinity d. stability

26. Despite his parents' warning, he in acting aggressively toward his little brother.

- a. implied b. varied c. persisted d. delegated

27. I never got very low or very high grade at school ; infact . I studied just enough to.

- a. bring about b. turn out c. impinge upon d. get by

28. He is against smoking in public places.

- a. achieving b. campaigning c. entangling d. affiliating

29. Nothing was ambiguous in what the teacher said; he told me to go out of the class.

- a. explicitly b. literally c. emotionally d. totally

30. The of the drug on the chemical poison saved his life.

- a. adaptation b. variation c. counteraction d. interpretation

31. You can fly to Turkey or go there by bus.

- a. distinctively b. effortfully c. paralytically d. alternatively

32. A(n) process is used when the brain explores and evaluates possible lines of thinking.

- a. heuristic b. thematic c. inductive d. regressive

33. Some computer programs have been developed to learning another language.

- a. dispose b. enhance c. presume d. generate

34. In our society, father is generally responsible for the of the family.

- a. welfare b. fatigue c. view d. theme

35. The basic skills of include predicting the consequences of an action and checking the results of one's own actions.

- a. semantics b. metacognition c. algorithm d. mnemonics